

THE RECOVERY COVEN: THE ONLY WITCHCRAFT-INFUSED RECOVERY PROGRAM HELPING WITCHES HEAL AND TRANSFORM

A sacred community combining spellcraft, psychic development, and magickal recovery tools to support witches on their unique sober witchcraft journey.

DETROIT, MI, UNITED STATES, March 28, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Addiction recovery is a deeply personal journey—one that should honor every individual's beliefs, practices, and unique path to healing. For witches in recovery, mainstream programs often fail to provide the spiritual connection they crave. Enter The Recovery Coven, the first and only witchcraft-infused recovery program, designed specifically for those who embrace sober witchcraft as a means of healing, transformation, and empowerment.

"Traditional recovery programs never felt like home to me," says Sunshine, founder of The Recovery Coven and leader of the Sober Witch Life movement. "As witches, we work with energy, magick, and shadow work to heal our wounds and reclaim our power. I knew there needed to be a space where witches in recovery could do this work together."

A NEW WAY TO RECOVER: INFUSING WITCHCRAFT INTO HEALING

The Recovery Coven is unlike any other spiritual recovery program available today. It is a sacred

WHY THIS MATTERS: WITCHES IN RECOVERY NEED A DIFFERENT PATH

For witches, addiction recovery isn't just about abstinence—it's about alchemy. The ability to transmute pain into wisdom, suffering into strength, and darkness into light is at the core of their spiritual practice. The Witch's Recovery Tools are different from what is traditionally offered in 12-step or clinical recovery programs.

"In the Recovery Coven, we embrace sober witchcraft as a way of reclaiming our power," says Sunshine. "A witch's recovery is just different. We believe in psychic abilities, magick, and energy healing—our approach should include all of these things."

This program provides the community, structure, and sacred space witches need to heal, ensuring they never have to choose between their spiritual identity and their recovery.

REAL STORIES, REAL TRANSFORMATION

The impact of The Recovery Coven is undeniable. One member recently shared how the psychic development workshops transformed their confidence and ability to trust their intuition:

"The psychic development workshops have given me confidence to trust my intuition and allow my guides to help me on my path to recovery. I'm constantly amazed at the synchronicities that keep showing up in my life."

These transformations aren't rare—they're the norm. Witches in recovery finally have a space where their gifts, practices, and healing journeys are fully embraced.

A COVEN FOR ALL—INCLUDING ITS FOUNDER

For Sunshine, The Recovery Coven isn't just about serving others—it's also how she stays on her own path of sober witch life.

"I created this for my community, but the truth is, I need it just as much as they do. Every ritual, every circle, every workshop is a reminder of why I do this work. The Recovery Coven is a living, breathing magickal force of healing—and I'm honored to walk this path with every witch who joins."

The program is already changing lives, providing witches in recovery with the support, spiritual connection, and transformative tools they need.
