

Centennial Kick-off by the New York Society of Women Artists (NYSWA) at the Interchurch Center Gallery

This Women's History Month, honor the legacy and vision of the New York Society of Women Artists as they celebrate their Centennial Year

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, March 28, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The New York Society of Women Artists \(NYSWA\) proudly inaugurates its Centennial Exhibition, Reflections on Progress: 100 Years of the New York Society of Women Artists in the Treasure Room of the Interchurch Gallery in Harlem. This landmark exhibition will feature works by 44 current NYSWA members alongside historic pieces from founding artists Marguerite Zorach, Anne Goldthwaite, and Theresa Bernstein on loan from major New York City institutions. The exhibition showcases a century of female creativity and the Society's enduring commitment to equity, diversity, and justice for women artists. Through autobiographical reflections, social critique, and powerful responses to global events, each work invites viewers into a compelling dialogue on womanhood, resilience, and artistic expression.

A free and open to the public celebratory Artists' Reception will be
