ORANJESTAD, ORANJESTAD, ARUBA, March 28, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Spronk Catamarans, Aruba's premier yacht charter service, proudly announces the latest addition to its fleet, Shamwari. A true masterpiece of craftsmanship, Shamwari is a Peter Spronk custom-built catamaran from 1973, designed by the legendary yacht builder himself. This new addition reinforces Spronk Catamarans' commitment to providing luxury sailing experiences in Aruba's stunning turquoise waters.

The name Shamwari, derived from the Shona language spoken in Zimbabwe, means "my friend," reflecting the warm, intimate, and personalized experiences guests can expect aboard this unique yacht. While Shamwari can accommodate over 36 guests, Spronk Catamarans has chosen to charter it exclusively for smaller, more intimate groups of 12 or fewer.

"As pioneers in Aruba's yacht charter industry, we are thrilled to introduce Shamwari to our fleet," said Kevin Spronk of Spronk Catamarans. "

"As pioneers in Aruba's yacht charter industry, we are thrilled to introduce Shamwari to our fleet," said Kevin Spronk of Spronk Catamarans. By offering exclusive charters for smaller groups, we are redefining luxury yachting and ensuring our guests experience the ultimate in comfort and relaxation."

Spronk Catamarans has long been synonymous with high-end sailing excursions, allowing travelers to explore Aruba's coastline in unparalleled style.

The sister ship to Shamwari is the renowned Rubaiyat, created in the 1970s. The Rubaiyat is a catamaran with a schooner rig, much like all of Spronk's creations. Its reputation lies primarily in its lightweight and rapid nature and the attentive and knowledgeable staff catering to many visitors to Aruba. These distinctive and innovative ships have proven to be a winning combination for fun and entertaining tours of the gorgeous coastline of Aruba.

With the addition of Shamwari, guests can expect an upgraded charter experience with Spronk Catamarans featuring:
