Since its inception in 2022, Full Circle of H.O.P.E. has been dedicated to providing educational and tuition assistance to disadvantaged and marginalized students in Barnesville/Lamar County, Henry County and surrounding Metro Atlanta areas. As Barnesville's first Black female doctor, Dr. Long envisions a future where every student has access to resources that propel academic success and personal growth. To date, Full Circle of H.O.P.E. has supported 15 students through its scholarship programs, helping them pursue higher education and achieve their goals. This year's gala aims to increase the amount of scholarship funds disbursed and expand the number of students supported through its programs.
