

LIEDA SHADWICK SELECTED FOR IAOTP'S TOP 50 FEARLESS LEADERS

Lieda Shadwick honored member of the International Association of Top Professionals (IAOTP) will be honored at their annual awards gala in Las Vegas

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, April 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lieda Shadwick, MAT, a seasoned CTE, was recently selected to be featured in the 4th Edition of the Top 50 Fearless Leaders Publication by the International Association of Top Professionals (IAOTP).

Inclusion with the International Association of Top Professionals is an honor in itself; only a few members in each discipline are chosen for this distinction. While being selected to be published in IAOTP's Top 50 Fearless Leaders Publication is an honor in itself, only 50 of the world's most brilliant, courageous, inspirational professionals are selected for this distinction.

These special honorees are hand-selected to share their stories of perseverance, resilience, passion, and strength. They have made outstanding contributions to society; they have impacted their industries and are respected in their trades. A chapter will be dedicated to each honoree, and Volume 4 will be released in 2025.

With more than two decades of exceptional experience in the industry, Ms. Shadwick is a certified educator in Illinois and Missouri. She currently serves as a Career and Technical Education (CTE) teacher at Riverview Gardens High School (RGHS) in St. Louis, Missouri, where she is teaching a dual credit computer applications course through St. Louis Community College-Florissant Valley during the 2024-2025 school year. Beyond her teaching qualifications, she possesses specialized expertise in marketing, web design, and computer applications.

Ms. Shadwick has an impressive and diverse career, which includes serving as an assistant coach for the girls' basketball team at Riverview Gardens Central Middle School and as a keyboarding and Introduction to Business instructor. Since 2019, she has consistently demonstrated exceptional performance as a CTE instructor at Riverview Gardens High School, a position she previously held from 2005 to 2010. Additionally, Ms. Shadwick is the secondary DECA adviser and has been awarded the Virtual Business-Personal Finance Grant to enhance DECA programming. With over two decades of experience in teaching, advising, and various other roles across secondary education, she brings a wealth of expertise to her work. Furthermore, Ms. Shadwick's eight-year military service, including a deployment during the Gulf War in the early 1990s, underscores her leadership and commitment to excellence.

Before starting her professional career path, Ms. Shadwick obtained a Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) in education technology from Webster University in Missouri in 2005. Throughout her illustrious career, Lieda has received many awards and accolades and has been recognized worldwide for her accomplishments. Earlier this year, Ms. Shadwick was honored as the Top Career and Technical Educator of the Year 2024 and Empowered Woman of the Year by the International Association of Top Professionals (IAOTP). She is also featured on the front cover of TIP (Top Industry Professionals) Magazine. Last year, she was awarded the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award and was featured on the famous Nashville Billboard. This year, she will be featured on the iconic Nasdaq Billboard in Times Square. She will be recognized for her selection to be included in IAOTP's Top 50 Fearless Leaders publication, celebrated at their annual gala at the magnificent Bellagio Hotel in Las Vegas this December.

In addition to her successful career, Lieda Shadwick maintains professional affiliations with the American Legion, the National Education Association, the Missouri National Education Association, the Association for Career and Technical Education, and the Marketing Educators of Missouri (MEMO).

Looking back, Lieda attributes her success to her perseverance, work ethic, and the mentors she has had along the way. When not working, she enjoys traveling and spending time with her family. In the future, she hopes to inspire and influence those getting into the field.
