BOSTON, MA, UNITED STATES, April 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CerTracker, a nurse-founded healthtech platform transforming how healthcare organizations manage workforce compliance, was honored to present at the first-ever Nurse Innovator Showcase at the American Organization for Nursing Leadership (AONL) 2025 conference in Boston.

AONL 2025 Nurse Innovator Showcase

Hosted by AONL and led by visionary nurse leaders like Amy Trueblood, PhD(c), RN and Kourtney Sproat, the Nurse Innovator Showcase celebrated groundbreaking companies built by nurses and designed to solve healthcare's most pressing challenges.

We're incredibly proud to stand alongside fellow nurse innovators and bring attention to the real-world challenges we face at the front lines," said Devin Patterson, Co-Founder of CerTracker."

"We're proud to be part of this historic moment," said Devin Patterson, RN, BSN, CEN, Co-Founder of CerTracker. "It's time nurse-led innovation takes center stage. Tools designed by nurses have the power to reshape care delivery, streamline systems, and restore the humanity of healthcare."

CerTracker showcased its AI-powered compliance platform that:

Simplifies licenses, CEUs and certification tracking

Designed by nurses, for nurses, CerTracker empowers frontline professionals to:

With a portable and independently managed, practitioner-owned digital wallet

Organize their full credential portfolio

Track renewals and deadlines automatically

Stay work-ready with real-time compliance status

The event highlighted other nurse-founded startups, including Access Healthwear, Humla Health, NurseBrain, ADNI, Meru, Parity Healthcare Analytics, Crimson Medical Solutions, Nurse Math LLC, Safe Seizure, NurseBrain® Axon | GenAI Workflow Platform, M7 Health, Nurses Feed Their Young(Thriving Nurses Network and more, demonstrating the critical role nurse leaders play in driving innovation.

“The future of healthcare isn’t just tech-enabled; it’s nurse-led,” said Patterson. “We’re grateful to AONL for creating space for innovators like us to be seen, heard, and celebrated.” CerTracker was built to eliminate the administrative chaos that burdens nurses and slows down care because we’ve lived it.
