

Las Vegas Open Padel Tournament Returns with $21K Prize Pool After Last Year's Triumph

P1 Padel's USPA approved Las Vegas Open Padel Tournament Returns with $21K Prize Pool After Last Year's Triumph

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, April 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The highly anticipated Las Vegas Open Padel Tournament is set to return from April 25-27, 2025, bringing top-tier competition and a $21,000 prize pool to the vibrant city. Hosted at P1 Padel Las Vegas, this year's event builds upon the overwhelming success of last year's tournament, which saw record participation and intense matches that captivated players and spectators alike.

P1 Padel Las Vegas Open 2025

The 2024 edition of the tournament was a resounding success, drawing competitors from across the nation and elevating the profile of padel in the United States. With a dynamic atmosphere, fierce competition, and high-stakes matchups, last year's event set a new benchmark, and organizers expect 2025 to surpass it. This year's edition is a USPA 2000 event with valuable ranking points at stake as well as the prize money and prizes.

We were thrilled with the enthusiasm and skill level on display last year, this year's event promises to be unforgettable.”

Scott Reddick

“We were thrilled with the enthusiasm and skill level on display last year, and we're excited to bring an even bigger and better experience in 2025,” said Scott Reddick, Tournament Director. “With more players, an incredible prize pool, and the energy of Las Vegas, this year's event promises to be unforgettable.”

The tournament will feature multiple divisions, including Men's and Women's Divisions 1, 2, and 3, ensuring players of all skill levels have the opportunity to compete. Each participant is guaranteed at least two matches, with all matches played in a best-of-three sets format. The men's tournament will begin on April 25th, while the women's tournament starts on April 26th.
