Expanding our team and resources lets us better serve clients with care and support and give back more to the community that has stood by us.”

While these honors are exciting, for the team at Loyd J. Bourgeois Injury & Accident Lawyer, growth is only meaningful because of what it allows them to do: help more people in their time of need and make a bigger impact in the community.

“Every case we take on involves a real person dealing with real hardship after a serious injury,” said founding attorney Loyd Bourgeois. “Being able to expand our team and resources means we can serve those clients with even more care, attention, and support, and it also allows us to give back more to the community and people who’ve supported us from the start.”

The firm has offices in Metairie and Luling and focuses exclusively on personal injury cases, car crashes, truck wrecks, and other serious injuries, guiding clients through their recovery and the legal process with compassion and clarity. As the firm has grown, it’s also increased its support for local schools, youth sports, and community programs in St. Charles Parish, Jefferson Parish, and surrounding areas.
