This announcement comes during a banner year for Joe Bonamassa, who's about to kick off his Spring Tour across Europe. After a short break, his supergroup Black Country Communion, will headline shows in 10 select cities across the continent.

While overseas for his Summer Tour, Bonamassa will also perform an exclusive three-night run in Cork, Ireland, paying tribute to the legendary Rory Gallagher. The special engagement—organized by the iconic Aiken Promotions in collaboration with Gallagher's family—marks the 30th anniversary of the beloved guitarist's passing.

Looking ahead, Bonamassa's 2025 U.S. Summer Tour will feature a limited run of outdoor performances at iconic venues like Red Rocks Amphitheatre, the Greek Theatre, and Vina Robles Amphitheatre. Come September, the hardest-working man in show business returns for a handful of special stateside shows before setting sail on the sold-out, inaugural Keeping the Blues Alive at Sea ALASKA cruise.

The star-studded lineup for this unforgettable voyage includes Marcus King, Little Feat, Marc Broussard, The Record Company, Sue Foley, and more.

Bonamassa is also riding high from the recent release of his two new singles "Still Walking With Me", an upbeat nod to steadfast love and second chances" and "Shake This Ground," a powerful uplifting anthem, both produced by longtime collaborator Kevin Shirley. These tracks offer a first glimpse at Joe's upcoming studio album, due later this year, and follows his searing collaboration with Sammy Hagar on "Fortune Teller Blues," that dropped in January.

As a four-time Grammy-nominated artist, Bonamassa has cemented his status as one of the most celebrated live performers of his generation, with 28 No. 1 albums on the Billboard Blues Chart—the most in history. His recent live album and concert film, Live at the Hollywood Bowl With Orchestra, debuted at No. 1 and captures a landmark performance backed by a full orchestra at one of the world's most iconic venues.

Beyond the stage, Bonamassa continues to champion music education and independent artistry through his nonprofit Keeping the Blues Alive Foundation, producing and releasing other artists through his labels KTBA Records and Journeyman Records and management company Journeyman LLC, which supports rising talent around the globe.

With his Hard Rock Live return this December, fans can expect an unforgettable night of genre-defying blues, fiery guitar solos, and the kind of electrifying musicianship that only Bonamassa can deliver. Fans and critics alike would agree that every Joe Bonamassa show is a brand new experience. For tickets, VIP packages, and all upcoming tour dates, visit www.jbonamassa.com.
