TULSA, OK, UNITED STATES, April 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Renowned Leadership Expert Nancy Gunter to Speak at SHRM25 in San Diego

Nancy Gunter, a leading authority on leadership development and workplace performance, has been announced as a featured speaker at SHRM25, the SHRM HR National Conference in San Diego, CA. With over 25,000 HR professionals gathering from across the nation, SHRM25 is the premier event for advancing workplace strategies, fostering inclusive cultures, and elevating leadership excellence. Gunter's session will provide attendees with actionable insights into Positive Intelligence (PQ), a transformative framework that enhances emotional resilience, decision-making, and team dynamics.

Garren Taylor, CFO of Fabricut, attests to the power of Gunter's expertise and the PQ work, stating:

"Positive Intelligence hits at the center of controlling your internal responses, not just what people see. With the help of Nancy as my coach, the practices learned in this class gave me a defined approach to help reset my viewpoint in hard situations. I've applied the tools when negotiating at work, coaching others, and at home. In one particular example, my 9-year-old son was having a meltdown fed by self-criticism. I used one of the Positive Intelligence exercises on empathy with him – and he immediately recovered. This not only helped him move forward, it also moved me from dictating expectations to helping him grow.”

As the CEO of Gunter Training, Nancy Gunter has spent more than 30 years coaching leaders, organizations, and teams to unlock their full potential. She is known for her engaging and practical approach to leadership, drawing from her extensive experience in HR, talent development, and organizational psychology.
