WOODLAND PARK, CO, UNITED STATES, April 7, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- America's Mountain Festival (AMF), scheduled for July 5, 2025, at Woodland Station, in downtown Woodland Park, will spotlight several Colorado artists sharing the main stage throughout the day.

Jon Chandler is a multi-talented 7th generation Coloradan and a three-time Spur Award winning author with Western Writers of America. Chandler also won male Performer of the Year from the International Western Music Association (IWMA). True West Magazine said that Chandler is the best Western performer known as The Voice of Colorado.

“AMF promotes itself as a celebration of the music, art and culture of the West.”

Ernie Martinez is an instrumentalist everyone desires in their lineup. The Denver native was inducted into the Colorado Blue Grass Hall of Honor, International Western Music Association's Instrumentalist of the Year 2018 and is a recipient of IWMA'S Curly Musgrave Award. Ernie is a guitar instructor at Swallow Hill and is an accompanist to numerous bands, songwriters, soloists and side kick to Jon

Chandler.

A Cowboy's Legacy is an ensemble of local husband and wife team Tom and Donna Hatton and others. It features high school sophomore Evie Gutierrez, the Hatton's granddaughter. The Hattons are award winners of the Academy of Western Artist Will Rogers Award for Cowboy Poetry CD Album of the Year 2005.

Dan Park, a backup vocalist and guitar accompanist, is also a member of A Cowboy's Legacy and plays Jazz guitar for Woodland Park Swing Factory. A transplanted Chicago native, Dan is also a professional photographer for schools around Colorado.

Ned LeDoux, the singer-songwriter and son of country legend Chris LeDoux, will be headlining the music festival.

LeDoux has infused all of his records with realistic stories of life as a cowboy, his relationship with music royalty, and the pain and joy that infuses his work.

AMF promotes itself as a celebration of the music, art and culture of the West. "LeDoux will bring life to our belief that music is a universal language with the power to unite people," said Derek Waggoner, AMF event producer and chief executive officer of the Tava investor group, the entity constructing the Tava House property at Woodland Station.

Additional Festival highlights will be performances by world-renown artist Michael Martin Murphey, Curtis Grimes and Jon Wolfe. "We will also have a wide variety of food vendors, mountain arts, and other activities to keep folks entertained throughout the day," said Waggoner.
