

Jans Launches Sparkling Prebiotic Drinks: Fruity, Fizzy, and Made for Every Moment

Jans Enterprises introduces its latest lineup of Sparkling Prebiotic Drinks—low-sugar, non-GMO beverages available in four fruity, refreshing flavors.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, April 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jans Enterprises Corp, a global food and beverage company known for bold snacks and better-for-you innovations, is excited to officially

We created this drink to fill the gap between flavor and feel-good refreshment. It’s something bright, light, and enjoyable that fits wherever life takes you.”

Anthony Kartawinata, Jans Enterprises Corp CEO

launch Jans Sparkling Prebiotic Drinks across the United States. These lightly carbonated beverages deliver a refreshing twist on fruit-forward drinking—with clean ingredients, low sugar, and a bubbly personality made for modern life.

From beach days to workdays, these drinks are crafted for people who want a vibrant, guilt-free alternative to sugary sodas or plain bottled water. Jans Sparkling Prebiotic

Drinks combine the lightness of sparkling water with the satisfaction of a real-fruit flavor burst—offering something genuinely enjoyable, without the crash or overload.

Two Sparkling Options – With or Without Collagen

Jans Sparkling Prebiotic Drinks come in two distinct lines to match different lifestyles and moods.

□ WITH COLLAGEN

These flavors add a smooth, indulgent twist—ideal for anyone who enjoys a little glow-up in their refreshment.

- Pink Guava & Mango – A tropical fusion that’s silky-smooth, subtly sweet, and made for golden-hour sipping.
- Lychee – Floral, delicate, and effortlessly crisp—like sipping summer from a can.

□ NO COLLAGEN

These bold, punchy flavors are refreshingly straightforward, perfect for everyday sipping.

- Dragonfruit & Raspberry – Sweet meets tart in a sparkling combo that hits the spot every time.

- Calamansi – A Southeast Asian citrus icon reimagined—zesty, tart, and incredibly refreshing.

Both options are non-GMO, use natural ingredients, and contain just 2-5 grams of sugar per can—a low-sugar beverage that doesn't compromise on taste.

Why More People Are Reaching for Jans

In a market saturated with sugary sodas and overly processed alternatives, Jans is carving a new path by offering:

- Low sugar prebiotic soda – A clean option for soda lovers looking to switch
- Lightly carbonated drinks – Smooth bubbles that go down easy
- Non-GMO drinks – Made without artificial ingredients
- Real fruit flavor – No fakes, just vibrant, natural tasting refreshment
- Versatility – Enjoy chilled, with a meal, or as a creative mixer for mocktails

With sleek 250ml cans and a modern look, Jans Sparkling Prebiotic Drinks are made to fit your everyday life—whether it's stashed in your work tote, packed for a picnic, or served at brunch with friends.

Sippable Anytime, Anywhere

- Morning reset – A bright start that feels lighter than coffee or juice
- Midday motivation – A quick pick-me-up that skips the crash
- Afternoon chill – Great with snacks, salads, or sunshine
- Evening wind-down – Pour over ice, add a twist of fruit, and unwind

Wherever you are, there's always a reason to crack open a can of Jans.
