“

Denver residents deserve access to the highest quality criminal defense services delivered with honesty and integrity”

“Denver residents deserve access to the highest quality criminal defense services delivered with honesty and integrity,” said Alexis Austin Litle, founding attorney at Right Law Group. “Our team of former prosecutors brings over 45 years of combined experience to the courtroom, offering unique insights into how the prosecution builds cases and how to effectively counter those strategies.”

Right Law Group specializes in defending clients against a wide range of criminal charges, including DUI defense, domestic violence, drug offenses, theft, assault, and other misdemeanor and felony charges. The firm's approach emphasizes personalized service, with attorneys who take the time to understand each client's unique situation.

"What sets us apart is our No B.S. approach combined with our dedication to each client," added Alexis. "We're real people who understand what Denver residents are up against when charged with a crime, and we're ready to fight for their rights with the same tenacity that has earned us hundreds of 5-star reviews."

The expansion comes as a direct response to growing demand for the firm's client-centered approach to legal defense. Right Law Group is known for its core values of customer service, teamwork, integrity, dedication, and innovation – principles that will guide their practice in Denver County.

"We see people, not files," Austin Little emphasized. "Every client's situation is unique and deserves a thorough analysis and a comprehensive defense strategy tailored specifically to their circumstances."
