Prior to joining Cleartelligence, Frivold co-founded Hero Digital and served as Executive Vice President of its Strategy practice, where he helped organizations transform their customer experiences through data-driven insights. Additionally, he was a Founder and Managing Partner at Winter Sun, a boutique advisory firm specializing in business strategy and digital transformation. His expertise spans multiple industries, including financial services, healthcare, and technology, where he has successfully led digital transformation initiatives.

"I am honored to take on this role at such a pivotal time for

Cleartelligence," said Frivold. "The company has built a strong reputation for delivering exceptional data solutions to market leaders and for being a leader in driving the adoption of Decision Intelligence for private equity-backed portfolio companies. I am excited to work alongside this talented team to drive continued innovation and value for our clients.”

Cleartelligence, known for its expertise in modern data architecture, cloud analytics, and AI-driven insights, has steadily expanded its capabilities to meet the evolving needs of enterprises. Under Frivold’s leadership, the company aims to accelerate growth by enhancing its technology offerings, deepening client relationships, and driving global expansion.
