

The Selects Gallery Exhibition Opening Announcement

The Selects Gallery is pleased to announce the opening of "Threads of Time: A Dialogue between Embroidery and Photography,"

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, April 7, 2025
/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Selects Gallery presents Threads of Time, an exceptional exhibition uniting the creative visions of iconic American fashion photographer Robert Farber and Delphine Nobili, founder of Atelier Lebuisson, a Parisian textile studio specializing in haute couture embroidery.

At its heart are three works from Farber's Wet Series, printed on canvas, and reimagined through the art of handmade embroidery by Atelier Lebuisson in France. Carefully selected for their symbolic resonance, these dreamlike photographs—featuring a diner, a cowboy, and an American flag—each represent a defining aspect of American culture. Originally part of the American Mood series shot in 2004, they took on a new life after an unexpected flood in Farber's New York studio altered their hues in 2018, imbuing them with a delicate, watercolor-like quality.

Through this collaboration, Farber and Nobili explore a third life for these images, offering a poetic reflection on time, resilience, and the unexpected beauty found in life's cycles and chance encounters.

Delphine Nobili brings her mastery of textile embellishment to Farber's painterly photographs, infusing them with intricate, tactile depth: Metallic and vinyl materials evoke the nostalgic sheen of American diners, natural fibers echo the rugged essence of the American West, and delicate stitching enhances the flowing grace of an American flag, lending it an ethereal softness.□

The exhibition is further enriched with two Polaroids, two original Wet Series pieces by Robert Farber, and an album showcasing Atelier Lebuissou's savoir-faire and projects with renowned Fashion Houses like LVMH.

Threads of Time weaves an inspiring cross-cultural dialogue between photography and embroidery, uniting a masculine American eye with a feminine French hand and redefining the boundaries of art collaboration.
