

Markate CRM Redefines Home Service Businesses Customer Handling with Human like Interaction - AI Receptionist Kate

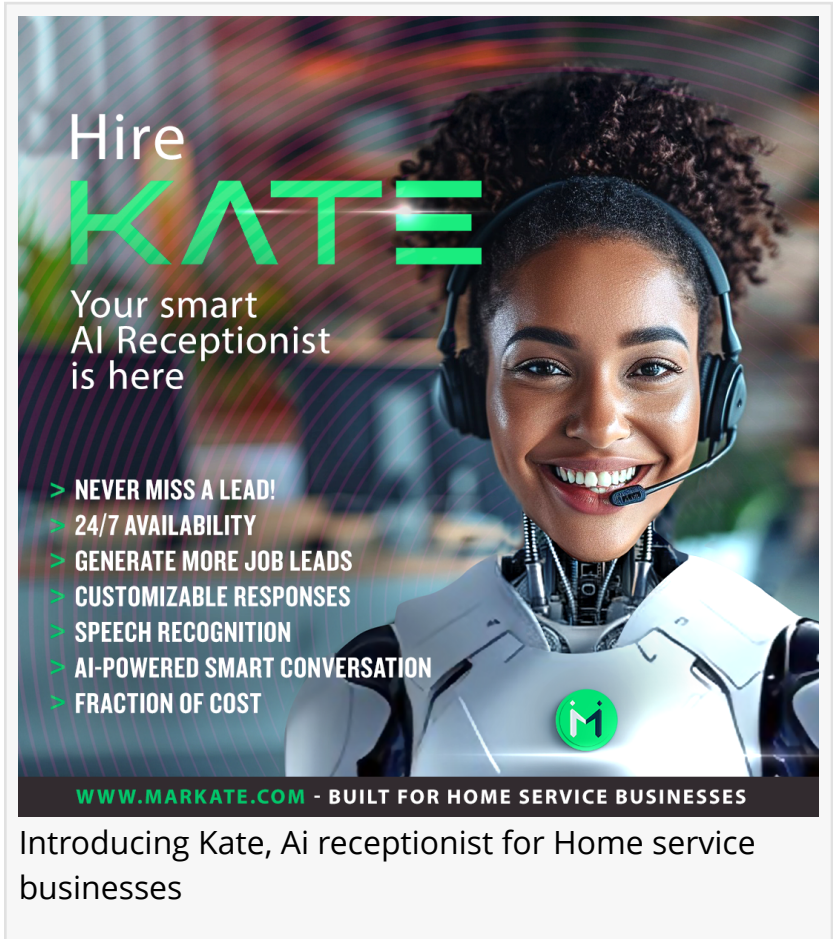

AI-Powered Solution Streamlines Customer Interactions, Enhancing Efficiency and Customer Satisfaction

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, UNITED STATES, April 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Markate CRM is the leading player among field service business solutions and is launching Kate, a very advanced AI receptionist that promises to revolutionize customer interaction. Seamless call handling 24/7: Meet an unbelievably human-sounding AI voice agent, aimed at providing business efficiency and professionalism unmatched anywhere.

In the fast-paced workings of field service, outstanding responsiveness is essential so the customer can be won immediately. Kate eliminates the frustrating waiting periods to make sure each caller gets instantaneous personalized assistance, regardless of the hour. With this new artificial intelligence solution, no urgent service requests and no important queries remain unattended even beyond the traditional operation hours.

"We are extremely proud to introduce Kate to the market," says Radu Manole, CTO at Markate. "It is highly tailored to the very special needs of home service businesses, thus reinventing the way AI-based communication works when it comes to providing exceptional 24x7 customer support. Such seamless integration allows staff to focus on other important tasks and on-time customer care."
