NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, April 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Coming Soon to a dancefloor near you: Emerging electronic music producer -Ü. (pronounced "you," aka C'cxell Soleil and Blū Tha Gürū), a West Coast transplant now electrifying the New York City scene, is set to unleash her highly anticipated debut album, "All The Rage," on April 10th, 2025. This 6-track powerhouse is a meticulously crafted collection of high-energy electronic dance music, primed to dominate festival playlists and club sound systems this season.

Originating from the sun-drenched shores and alluring Pacific Oceans of the West Coast, -Ü. brings a unique sonic palette to the thriving New York electronic music landscape. "All The Rage" is a testament to her dedication to crafting immersive and exhilarating sonic experiences, blending pulsating rhythms, intricate synth melodies, and driving basslines.

"I, like many DJs and producers, also come from the dancefloor," says C'cxell Soleil, the creative force behind -Ü. and very own independent label [The Festival Project™] "I wanted to create something that would capture the raw energy and excitement of live electronic music, something that would make people move and feel alive."

"All The Rage" showcases -Ü.'s versatility, seamlessly transitioning between hard-hitting techno, euphoric house, and experimental soundscapes. Each track is designed to build momentum, creating a sonic journey that culminates in a frenzy of dance-floor euphoria.

"All The Rage" will be available on all major streaming platforms and digital retailers on April 10th, 2025. Prepare to surrender to the rhythm and experience the full force of -Ü.'s sonic revolution.
