“This move is about more than just square footage—it’s about continuing to raise the bar for the people who count on us the most,” said founding partner Darryl Kogan. “We’ve outgrown our old space because of the trust our clients place in us. Now, we have the room and the resources to serve them even better.”

“

We’re here to win for our clients. This new location gives us the space to collaborate more effectively and deliver even stronger legal outcomes for the people who need us most.”

Todd Baker, Esq.

Kogan & DiSalvo has experienced significant growth over the past several years, expanding its team of attorneys and support staff to meet increasing demand. The new Ft. Lauderdale area location offers upgraded amenities, increased meeting space, and enhanced capabilities to support a growing volume of complex personal injury cases.

“Knowing this space was once home to Dan Marino brings a unique energy,” added partner Ted DiSalvo. “It feels fitting to continue our mission of fighting for injured victims in a space once used by a local icon known for strength, strategy, and leadership.”

The firm’s expansion underscores its position as a trusted advocate for accident victims throughout Florida. From car crashes and slip-and-fall injuries to wrongful death and medical malpractice, Kogan & DiSalvo is known for its aggressive representation, compassionate service, and proven results.

“We’re here to win for our clients,” said Partner Todd Baker. “This new location gives us the space to collaborate more effectively and deliver even stronger legal outcomes for the people who need us most.”

Kogan & DiSalvo invites current and prospective clients to visit the new office or contact the firm for a free consultation.
