TimeForge*

Retail and restaurant employers face unique challenges when hiring, including high turnover, tight timelines, and the need for safe, trustworthy staff. Through this new partnership, TimeForge customers can take advantage of NCS’s affordable screening solutions to make informed decisions during the hiring process—ensuring a safer workplace for both employees and guests.

“We’re excited to team up with National Crime Search and bring more value to our customers during the hiring process,” said Audrey Hogan, COO of TimeForge. “Our goal has always been to simplify workforce management, and this partnership helps our customers access critical screening services from a provider they can trust.”

NCS offers a wide range of employment screening services, including:

- Nationwide criminal background checks
- Sex offender registry searches
- Social Security number verification
- Motor vehicle records (MVRs)
- I-9/E-Verify services & automation
- Healthcare and industry-specific checks
- Employment and education verification tools

As a benefit of the partnership, TimeForge customers are able to easily get connected with NCS to begin the screening process, adding an extra layer of confidence to their hiring decisions.

“TimeForge shares our commitment to helping businesses operate more efficiently and securely,” said Travis Fink, CEO of National Crime Search. “We’re proud to partner with them and support their customers with fast, reliable, and FCRA-compliant background checks.”

This partnership underscores TimeForge’s dedication to supporting businesses at every step of the employee lifecycle—from hiring to retention—while reducing administrative burdens on busy operators and HR teams.
