- A family-friendly atmosphere, free and open to the public, welcoming all ages.

Set against the charming backdrop of Denison's historic

Main Street, this event celebrates the region's rich cultural heritage while inviting attendees to immerse themselves in a weekend of creativity and fun.

“We’re proud to host the North Texas Arts Festival as a cornerstone of our mission to promote and celebrate the arts in our community,” said Cindy Salem, from the Denison Arts Council. “This event is a fantastic opportunity to connect with talented artists, enjoy live entertainment, and savor the best of North Texas culture, all in the charming setting of our Cultural Arts District.”

Located just 65 miles north of Dallas, Denison’s historic downtown provides the perfect backdrop for this annual tradition. With its 19th-century architecture and thriving arts scene, the area invites visitors to make a weekend of it by exploring local restaurants, shops, hotels, and Airbnb options.
