Sphere, a leading digital platform for connecting patients to trusted medical specialists in Singapore, is proud to announce its expansion to Timor-Leste (East Timor) and Vietnam. This innovative service allows patients in both countries to access a wide range of medical specialists in Singapore, helping them overcome the barriers of distance and complexity that can make seeking international healthcare a challenge. While Specialist Sphere's platform is entirely free to use, any medical services that patients choose to engage with through the platform will be subject to the specialists' fees.

Developed by Sotavento Medios, a digital marketing agency based in Singapore, Specialist Sphere provides a streamlined, user-friendly platform that makes it easier for patients in Timor-Leste and Vietnam to find high-quality medical specialists across various disciplines such as cardiology, dermatology, orthopedics, pediatric care, and more. By eliminating the need for patients to contact specialists individually, Specialist Sphere provides a simple and transparent way to access top-tier healthcare in Singapore.

"We are thrilled to extend our platform to Timor-Leste and Vietnam," said Jeremy Lee, spokesperson for Specialist Sphere. "We understand the unique challenges that patients in these countries face when trying to access specialized care in Singapore, and we're excited to provide a platform that simplifies that process. Although our service is free, it's important to clarify that patients will need to pay for any medical consultations, treatments, or services directly to the specialists they choose to engage with."

A Free Platform Connecting Patients to Singapore's Top Medical Experts

For patients in Timor-Leste and Vietnam, finding a trusted medical specialist in Singapore can often involve lengthy research, uncertain results, and potentially high costs. Specialist Sphere addresses these concerns by providing a free platform where patients can quickly browse through profiles of over 100 Singapore-based medical specialists, view their qualifications, and directly contact them to schedule consultations.

This service allows patients to connect with healthcare professionals in a simple and efficient manner, without the need for multiple phone calls or emails. The platform supports individuals who may be seeking treatment for chronic conditions, wellness care, or specialized medical advice. Patients can access detailed information about each specialist and easily choose the right one based on their medical needs.

“We wanted to create a platform that removes the complexities of finding and connecting with the right healthcare providers,” said Jeremy Lee. “For patients in Timor-Leste and Vietnam, this is an easy and accessible way to get in touch with the specialists they need without facing the traditional barriers of distance and time-consuming processes.”

While Specialist Sphere remains completely free to use, patients should be aware that any consultations or treatments they arrange through the platform will still be charged directly by the medical specialists themselves, allowing for complete transparency and flexibility.
