

LSBF Singapore Campus Shortlisted for Two Categories in the Employee Experience Awards Singapore 2025

SINGAPORE, April 8, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Singapore, 8 April 2025 – London School of Business & Finance (LSBF) Singapore Campus has been shortlisted as a finalist for the Employee Experience Awards Singapore 2025 in two prominent categories: Best Organisational Change Leadership and Best Remote Work Strategy.

These esteemed nominations highlight LSBF's unwavering commitment to fostering a people-first workplace culture that prioritizes employee well-being, growth, and development. The Employee Experience Awards recognize organizations that excel in creating environments that empower employees to reach their fullest potential, both professionally and personally.

Catherine Ong, Head of Human Resources at LSBF, shared her perspective on the achievement: "This recognition is not just a reflection of the HR department's hard work but also the collective efforts of the entire team. Our commitment to engagement, collaboration, and innovation is evident, as we continue to build a flexible, inclusive, and empowering workplace."

This recognition further underscores LSBF's broader commitment to cultivating an environment where both employees and students thrive in a culture of growth, support, and adaptability. With this industry acknowledgement, students can take confidence in knowing that LSBF continues to lead by example—equipping every individual with the skills, knowledge, and resources needed to succeed in today's dynamic world.
