"VHS Learning Academy is a full-time online private school, and VHS Learning is a part-time supplemental online program that provides students and schools with expanded curriculum offerings. All students enrolled in both the full-time and supplemental programs take VHS Learning courses from the same course catalog, and Academy students use these courses to meet their high school graduation requirements," said Carol DeFuria, CEO of VHS Learning Academy. "This rebrand clarifies the connection between VHS Learning's supplemental program and its full-time Academy program."

“Academy students come from all over the United States, and we also have international student enrollments,” said Michalowski. “Students enroll in VHS Learning Academy for a variety of reasons.
