

Phillips Law Welcomes Associate Attorney Alexandra Geissmann to Expand Criminal Defense and Personal Injury Services

Geissmann joins Phillips Law to strengthen its client-focused criminal defense and personal injury representation across New Orleans and Metairie.

NEW ORLEANS, LA, UNITED STATES, April 8, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Phillips Law, a leading New Orleans-based law firm dedicated to protecting the rights of individuals facing criminal charges and recovering from serious injuries, proudly announces the addition of Associate Attorney Alexandra "Alex" Geissmann to its growing legal team.

A native of Slidell, Louisiana, Ms. Geissmann brings passion, precision, and a deep commitment to client advocacy. Her experience spans both criminal law with a sharp focus on achieving favorable outcomes for clients facing challenging circumstances. At Phillips Law, she will concentrate on criminal defense and DWI defense throughout the New Orleans metro area.

"We're excited to welcome Alexandra to the firm," said Bradley Phillips, co-founder of Phillips Law. "Her attention to detail and client-first approach aligns perfectly with our mission to deliver aggressive, compassionate legal representation. She brings valuable courtroom experience and a fresh perspective to our defense strategies."

Ms. Geissmann earned her Juris Doctor from LSU Law School. Before joining Phillips Law, she honed her legal skills as a prosecutor for over 4 years at the Orleans Parish District Attorney's Office.
