

Formula 1 Powerboat Championship Announces Action-Packed 2025 Season

North America's Premier Powerboat Series Returns with High-Speed Thrills and Community Festivities

ST. LOUIS, MO, UNITED STATES, April 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Formula 1 Powerboat Championship is set to make waves again in 2025 as North America's premier powerboat racing series returns for another adrenaline-charged season. From May through October, spectators across the U.S. will witness some of the world's fastest and most thrilling boats hit the water in a seven-race circuit with 3 competitive boat classes that blends elite competition with vibrant community festivals.

Midwest Nationals; July 18 – 20 Alton Riverfront Park, Alton, IL, United States

Established in 2017, the Formula 1 Powerboat Championship showcases the pinnacle of American powerboat racing. These state-of-the-art machines—capable of reaching speeds up to 120 mph—battle deck-to-deck in intense, sponson-banging showdowns that leave fans breathless and communities buzzing. The series not only honors the legacy of U.S. powerboat racing, which dates back to 1903, but propels it into the future with world-class competition and global reach through extensive media and livestreaming coverage.

Our mission is simple—create unforgettable events that spotlight the raw power of Formula 1 boats while investing in local economies and celebrating our passionate fanbase”
