

Kari Kling to Release Aunt Katrina's No No Room, a New Children's Book Exploring the Power of Imagination

Book available April 29th

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, April 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Briley & Baxter Books is pleased to announce the release of Aunt Katrina's No No Room, the latest children's book by author Kari Kling, set to be published on April 29, 2025. A follow-up to her successful debut Grandma Helen's No No Room, Kling's latest work invites young readers ages six to 12 into a world of humor, mystery, and boundless creativity.

Brought to life by the illustrations of Asim Shafiq, the book follows six curious nephews determined to uncover the secrets behind their aunt's off-limits room. With imaginations running wild, they conjure up fantastical possibilities—could it be a portal to Paris, a superhero hideout, or a room filled with chocolate factory? As their ideas grow wilder, so does the anticipation, making Aunt Katrina's No No Room a story filled with laughter and surprises.

"Inspired by my own childhood and the endless curiosity of kids, this book celebrates the joy of wondering 'what if?'" said Kling. "Children have an incredible ability to turn the ordinary into something magical, and I hope this story sparks that creativity in every reader."

Kling's Aunt Katrina's No No Room is available for preorder now on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and other major online bookstores. Join Kari on this magical adventure and inspire the imaginations of children everywhere.
