Over the past year, California has experienced an uptick in flash floods, severe storms, and wildfire outbreaks—many of which have left behind significant damage to properties. In response, 770 Water Damage & Restoration has scaled its operations to ensure that customers receive fast, reliable help when they need it most.

“Our phones have been ringing non-stop after every major weather event,” said a company spokesperson. “People are overwhelmed, and what they want is someone who can show up quickly, take control of the situation, and walk them through the recovery process. That’s exactly what we’re here for.”

24/7 Emergency Service, Ready for Anything

770 Water Damage & Restoration provides 24/7 emergency support with certified technicians ready to respond any time, day or night. Their team specializes in:

Water damage restoration – from burst pipes to basement floods

Mold remediation – safe removal and prevention strategies

Fire and smoke damage cleanup – clearing soot, smoke odor, and debris

Storm damage repair – addressing structural issues, water intrusion, and debris cleanup

Each service is performed using industry-approved methods and modern equipment to ensure safe and effective results. The company also follows strict health and safety guidelines, protecting both the property and its occupants throughout the restoration process.

Personalized Support and Insurance Guidance

One thing that sets 770 Water Damage & Restoration apart is its hands-on approach to customer care. In addition to cleanup and repairs, the company assists clients in working with their insurance providers, helping them navigate documentation, photo records, and policy questions during what can be a very stressful time.

“We don’t just show up, do the work, and leave,” the spokesperson said. “We stay involved from start to finish—making sure homeowners and business owners feel supported every step of the way.”

Investing in the Future of Restoration

To better serve communities facing the effects of climate change, 770 Water Damage & Restoration continues to invest in advanced technology, equipment, and team training. The company regularly updates its protocols to match evolving best practices and industry standards.

By combining a compassionate approach with technical excellence, the company aims to help residents not just recover from disasters—but also feel confident and informed throughout the process.

Serving Southern California
Communities

Based in Los Angeles, 770 Water Damage & Restoration proudly serves multiple cities and counties across Southern California. Their local knowledge, fast response times, and commitment to service have earned them a strong reputation in the region.

“We live in the same communities as our customers,” the spokesperson added. “We know what it’s like to be hit by a flood or fire. That’s why we treat every job like it matters—because it does.”
