

STARRS Town Hall Covers Ideological Resistance to Military Reforms

STARRS quarterly Town Hall meeting on April 9, 2025

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO, UNITED STATES, April 11, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- STARRS held its quarterly Town Hall meeting on April 9, 2025, featuring special speakers Sam Shoemate, a retired Army intelligence analyst, and Dr. Chase Spears, a retired Army Public Affairs Officer.

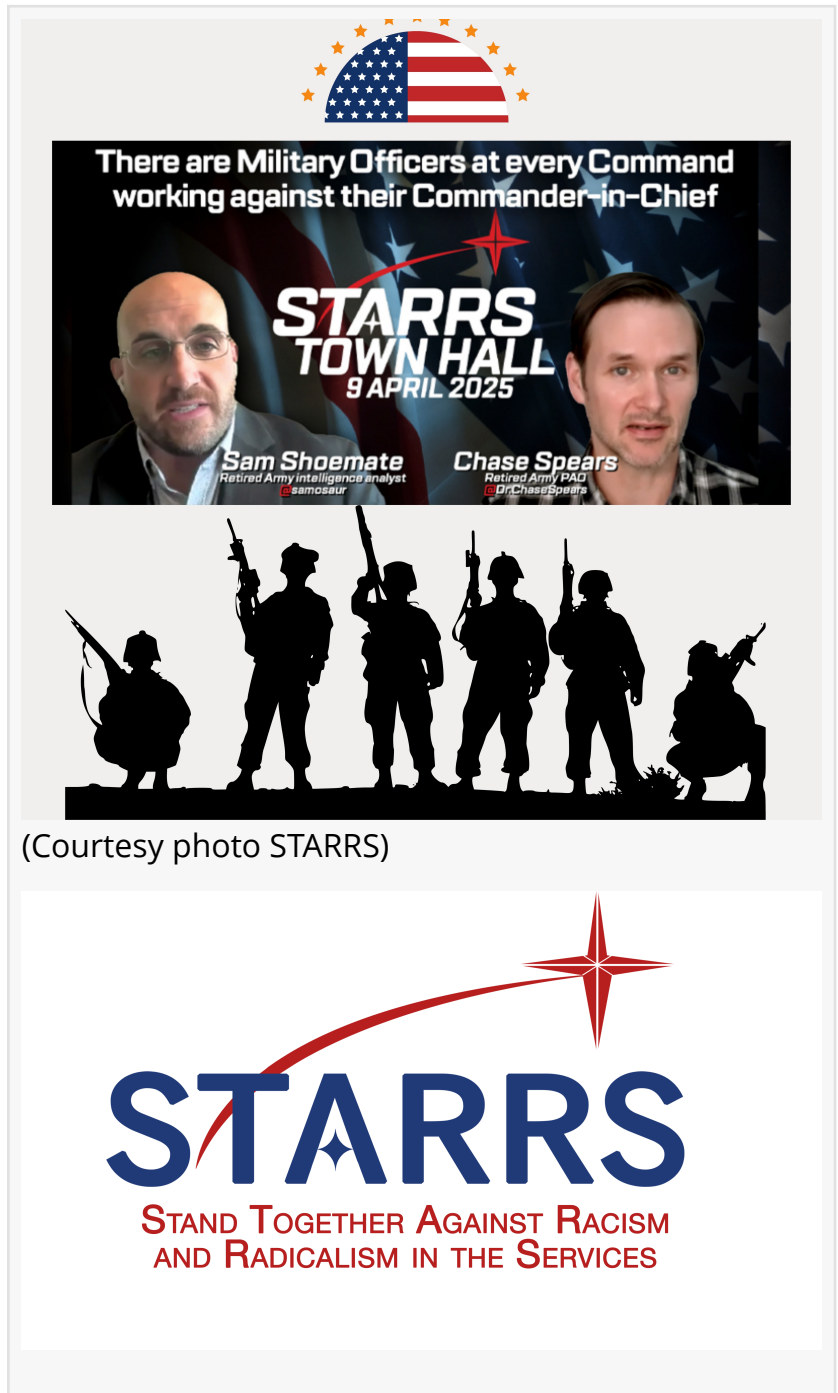

The Town Hall agenda focused on developments aimed at meeting the strategic goals of eliminating the CRT/DEI ideology from the Department of Defense through guest speakers, comments, and questions.

Senior and junior officers, enlisted men and women, nonveteran patriots, and the media attended.

Introductory remarks were made by STARRS Board Chair Lt. General Rod Bishop, USAF ret, USAFA '74.

Speakers at the town hall:

-Chief Warrant Officer Sam Shoemate, USA (retired), a former Army intelligence analyst with 200,000 followers on "X",

The graphic features a stylized American flag at the top with the text "There are Military Officers at every Command working against their Commander-in-Chief". Below this, two speakers are shown in a split-screen format: Sam Shoemate (Retired Army intelligence analyst) on the left and Chase Spears (Retired Army PAO) on the right. The central text reads "STARRS TOWN HALL 9 APRIL 2025". At the bottom, there is a silhouette of six soldiers in various poses, some holding rifles. The STARRS logo, a red star with a swoosh, is positioned above the word "STARRS" in large blue letters. Below the logo, the tagline "STAND TOGETHER AGAINST RACISM AND RADICALISM IN THE SERVICES" is written in red.

-Major Chase Spears, PhD, USA (retired)

-STARRS Executive VP and nominee for Undersecretary of the Air Force, former USAF Lt. Col. Matt Lohmeier.

The Town Hall also included remarks by STARRS Vice Chairman Maj. General Joe Arbuckle, USA ret., regarding a mission adjustment for STARRS. This adjustment is based on current developments, shifting the focus from eradicating CRT (Critical Race Theory)/DEI (Diversity, Equity and Inclusion) ideology from the DoD to being a sentinel viewing how DEI is being removed and continuing educating Americans on America's Creed and the dangers of DEI.

STARRS President and CEO Col. Ron Scott, PhD, USAF (ret), USAFA '73, served as the host for the Town Hall.

ABOUT STARRS

STAND TOGETHER AGAINST RACISM AND RADICALISM IN THE SERVICES- purpose as a (501(c)(3) is to help educate all Americans regarding the criticality of having a military that focuses solely on the essential readiness needed to fight and win our Nation's wars. Winning requires a military that provides equal opportunity and a meritocracy leadership system that rewards high standards, ethical character, teamwork, and selfless service to our Nation. This mission accomplishment requires the elimination of DEI from the DoD by informing people about all ideologies, policies, agendas, and organizations that threaten a meritocracy-based military.
