In its second year, the MWBE Awards celebrate exceptional MWBEs in the Finger Lakes Region. JR Language will be officially recognized during the event on Wednesday, June 18, in downtown Rochester.

“Our translation agency is honored to receive this recognition,” said Jackie Ruffolo, Founder and President of JR Language. “For 18 years, we’ve been helping clients communicate globally while growing from our headquarters in Rochester. This award reflects our talented team's dedication and our loyal clients' trust.”

With language services in over 100 languages, JR Language empowers businesses to connect with employees, customers, and partners worldwide. From AI-powered translations and video localization to academic, healthcare, technical translations and more, the company supports diverse industries—especially middle-market and enterprise clients—with scalable, high-quality solutions that prioritize inclusivity and global reach.

“Our 2025 MWBE Award honorees are a diverse and outstanding group of organizations representing industries and sectors throughout our regional economy,” said Bob Duffy, President & CEO of the Greater Rochester Chamber of Commerce, “Our region would not be the same without the influence of [JR Language Translation Services Inc.], and we are proud they choose to call Greater Rochester home.”

This year's MWBE honorees collectively contribute over $400 million in revenue and create thousands of jobs, exemplifying the strength and promise of the region's business ecosystem.
