REAL ESTATE & BUSINESS

By Colibri Real Estate

ASREB has been a trusted provider of pre-licensing courses for the real estate industry for 55 years, educating more real estate students than any other school in Arizona.

fellow real estate professionals — including past award winners — and a selection of light fare and refreshments.

ASREB is Arizona's number one provider of real estate pre-licensing courses, continuing education, and professional development, offering seminars, certification programs, and advanced training to help real estate professionals thrive in their careers. With more graduates than any other real estate school in the state, ASREB has been revolutionizing real estate education for 55 years. The school publishes the Arizona Journal of Real Estate & Business, a leading industry publication that, for 30 years, has provided vital information and resources for Arizona real estate professionals. The Journal Industry Awards were established to recognize the publication's influence and positive impact on Arizona's real estate community. Produced monthly, the publication reaches over 30,000 print and 90,000 digital readers.

The Journal Industry Awards have been a highly anticipated annual event for ten years. For a decade, ASREB has not only ensured that the real estate community is recognized for its outstanding achievements but also fostered a premier event where professionals can gain insights, hear from inspiring leaders and connect with other movers and shakers. Individuals are nominated by their peers and then evaluated by ASREB to select a winner. Throughout its history, the awards ceremony has recognized over 120 outstanding individuals, including real estate agents, home inspectors, commercial real estate brokers, real estate educators and more. This year, ASREB received over 100 nominations across all award categories.

"For ten years, the Journal Industry Awards have celebrated the dedication, innovation and impact of Arizona's real estate professionals," said Jenny Hogan-Lizarraga, Senior Manager of Market Development at ASREB and Hogan School of Real Estate. "This milestone year is a testament to the passion and perseverance of those who shape our industry. We look forward to honoring their achievements and bringing the community together for an impactful evening."

14 distinct awards will be presented at this year's celebration, including Real Estate Agent of the Year, Real Estate Rookie of the Year and Educator of the Year. Over 200 top performers from the local real estate sector will be in attendance, many of whom have been nominated for an award by their peers. Remarks will be given by leading experts in real estate, including Lance Billingsley, Vice President of Development at Navi Title and host of the 13% Podcast, and Rachel Krill from Real Broker and Hello Culture, a top-performing real estate agent and consultant with over 20 years of experience. Several past Journal Industry Awards winners will not only be in attendance, but also present the awards they received last year, including Andrew Harshman (2023 Home Inspector of the Year), Derek Tschilar (2023 Rookie of the Year), Michelle Macklin (2023 Luxury Agent of the Year), Sarah Ruiz (2023 Transaction Coordinator of the Year) and Crystle Mulzet (2023 Title Agent of the Year).

"As we recognize the tenth anniversary of the Journal Industry Awards this year, we are reminded of the incredible talent and dedication within Arizona's real estate community," said Greg Muir, Executive Vice President and GM at ASREB. "We are honored to continue this tradition of recognition and look forward to an awards ceremony that not only celebrates this year's achievements but also inspires future success."
