Our compassionate staff is committed to helping families honor their loved ones. We understand the importance of personalization and work closely with each family to create a meaningful and unique tribute to your loved ones, helping navigate which cremation placement option fits your individual needs. This thoughtful approach ensures each remembrance is as special and unique as the individual being honored. “Our staff strives to, first and foremost, care for the families during a decision process that can be daunting. We want to provide an informative, comforting, and efficient experience that ultimately brings some peace to the loved ones,” mentioned Executive Director, Scott Reeves.

We are also grateful to help you navigate your family's legacy planning. When you make arrangements in advance, you ensure your wishes are respected while alleviating the burden on your loved ones. Legacy planning allows for thoughtful decisions to be made in a calm and considered manner, providing peace of mind for all involved.

Remembrance Gardens is non-sectarian and open to individuals of all religious and non-religious backgrounds. Our commitment to inclusivity ensures every family feels supported, cared for, and respected. We have plans to expand the Gardens' footprint in the coming years, providing more families the opportunity to honor and remember their loved ones.
