

Indoor Golf Design Featured in Phoenix Home & Garden Magazine

Indoor Golf Design, featured in Phoenix Home & Garden, excels in luxury custom simulators for golf & multi-sport, blending high-end tech with bespoke design.

CHANDLER, AZ, UNITED STATES, April 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Indoor Golf Design (IGD), a premier leader in custom indoor golf and multi-sport simulator installations, is proud to announce its recent feature in Phoenix Home & Garden magazine. The article celebrates IGD's innovative approach to creating bespoke entertainment spaces, highlighting the company's dedication to luxury, precision, and cutting-edge technology.

At Indoor Golf Design, we're your partner in curating bespoke entertainment rooms.”

Brad Lefebvre, Founder and CEO of Indoor Golf Design

Founded by Brad and Beverly Lefebvre, Indoor Golf Design has spent over two decades redefining the possibilities of indoor entertainment. Combining Brad's expertise in custom design-build projects with Beverly's marketing and sales acumen, the duo has positioned IGD as a global curator of high-end entertainment spaces. From private residences to corporate offices, their work transforms ordinary spaces into extraordinary experiences.

A VISION FOR LUXURY ENTERTAINMENT

The Phoenix Home & Garden article describes IGD as a “sports aficionado's dream come true,” offering an array of immersive options that go far beyond traditional golf simulators. Clients can choose from multi-sport systems, shooting simulators, racing setups, and even table games. These customizable solutions cater to individuals with refined tastes and are designed to make a bold statement in any setting—whether it's a game room, home theater, garage, or backyard.

INDUSTRY-LEADING TECHNOLOGY

Indoor Golf Design specializes in integrating state-of-the-art simulator technology from top manufacturers such as Trackman, Flightscope, Foresight Sports, Uneekor, and Trugolf. These systems provide unparalleled accuracy and realism for golf enthusiasts while also offering versatile multi-sport capabilities. IGD's expert team ensures seamless installation and customization tailored to each client's unique vision and space requirements.

Whether it's a professional-grade golf simulator for practice or an all-in-one entertainment hub for family fun, IGD delivers solutions that exceed expectations. Their process includes detailed consultations, 3D room renderings, precise space planning, and professional installation by their skilled team of designers and PGA professionals.

A GLOBAL FOOTPRINT WITH LOCAL ROOTS

Although based in Chandler, Arizona, IGD serves clients across the globe—from Scottsdale and Paradise Valley to Canada and Europe. Their clientele includes Hollywood celebrities, professional athletes, C-suite executives, architects, builders, and designers who seek unparalleled quality and sophistication in their entertainment spaces.

This international reach is supported by IGD's commitment to excellence at every stage of the process. By collaborating with architects and interior designers during new builds or remodels, the company ensures each project is perfectly integrated into its surroundings while maintaining the highest standards of luxury and functionality.
