What Can Customers Expect

Participants of the Savannah tour will stroll between four of the city's most delightful donut, pastry, and sweet shops, while enjoying insights into the history and culture of Savannah itself. The route weaves through iconic areas like Broughton Street, Wright Square, Johnson Square, and City Market, highlighting local eateries, boutiques, historic landmarks, and hidden gems. The tour experience is personalized to reflect the interests of each group, offering a unique and engaging outing for both visitors and locals.

“This tour is going to be so much fun. The perfect thing to get your morning started—whether you're a local or someone from out of town, we think you're going to love it,” said Jonathan Vasata, Tour Manager for the Underground Donut Tour Savannah.

"Savannah is absolutely charming and we're so excited to help support local businesses, the local economy, and showcase the world-class city that we know Savannah is," added Jeff Woelker, owner and founder of the Underground Donut Tour.
