

Partner Real Estate Launches Cutting-Edge Mobile App to Empower Real Estate Agents in 2025

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, April 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a market that demands speed, personalization, and efficiency, Partner Real Estate is proud to introduce the Partner Real Estate App — a next-generation client portal designed to give real estate agents the competitive edge to thrive in 2025 and beyond.

Built specifically with agents in mind, this powerful tool offers everything a modern agent needs to connect, convert, and close more business — all from the palm of their hand.

Key Features Driving Agent Success:

□ Fully Branded to the Agent

Create a seamless client experience that keeps you front and center — not third-party tools.

□ Personal Client Portal

Offer each client their own private app space to browse homes, receive updates, and stay organized throughout their journey.

□ In-App Communication

Keep every conversation in one place. No more missed texts or buried emails — respond quickly and professionally within the app.

□ Send Sold Properties to Leads

Stay top of mind with automated updates showcasing market activity, directly from your FUB (Follow Up Boss) CRM.

□ FUB Integration

Send properties and messages automatically or manually — without ever leaving FUB.

□ Home Value Tool Integration

Empower clients with instant access to their current home value and market insights, positioning you as their go-to expert.

□ Custom Vendor Recommendations

Curate your own trusted vendor list — from mortgage brokers to electricians — and deliver more value with every transaction.

□ Push Notifications Made Personal

Announce new listings, open houses, or send birthday wishes — all customized by you and branded to your business.

□ Personal IDX — Free

Easily embed your own IDX onto your website — no extra fees, no complicated setup.

“This app puts agents in control of the client experience like never before,” says Rudy Lira Kusuma, CEO of Partner Real Estate. “It’s not just a tool — it’s a direct extension of your brand, your service, and your commitment to your clients.”

As the real estate landscape evolves, Partner Real Estate continues to innovate — giving agents not just leads, but leverage.
