

Turning Setbacks Into Settlements: Zachary Goldwich Inspires at The Liquidity Event

Public Adjuster Zachary Goldwich empowers attendees to turn setbacks into strategic wins at February's Liquidity Event in Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, FL, UNITED STATES, April 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On February 20, 2025, The Liquidity Event once again brought together Jacksonville's most driven entrepreneurs, business owners, and industry professionals. The featured speaker, Zachary Goldwich, a second-generation public adjuster and entrepreneur at Gold Star Adjusters, delivered a powerful message on resilience, adaptability, and reclaiming what's rightfully yours—both in business and in life.

Hosted by Randolph Love III, founder of ShieldWolf Strongholds, and presented by The Entrepenudist Podcast, the evening was made possible by generous sponsorship from Insurance Claim HQ, reinforcing the event's commitment to providing high-value education, meaningful connections, and actionable strategies.

Adapt, Overcome, and Own Your Outcome

Goldwich opened his talk by challenging a familiar narrative: that success requires a college degree. Instead, he shared how skipping college became his launching pad for real-world learning, hustle, and hands-on problem-solving. "It was a perceived setback," he said. "But it pushed me to be resourceful. That mindset changed everything."

Encouraging attendees to identify their own roadblocks—whether personal, financial, or operational—he asked, "Who in your network can help you overcome this?" His message:

obstacles are inevitable, but how we respond is what determines our growth.

Unmasking the Insurance Industry

As a public adjuster representing policyholders—not insurance companies—Goldwich exposed the frustrating but all-too-common reality of delayed, denied, and underpaid claims. From natural disasters to policy loopholes, he laid out how insurance companies reduce payouts to protect their bottom line.

“Letting the company that owes you money decide how much they owe you? That’s never in your favor,” he said.

With over $50 million recovered for clients, Gold Star Adjusters has earned a reputation across Florida for delivering real results, operating on a no-recovery, no-fee basis. From homeowners to commercial property owners, Goldwich and his team help clients navigate the policy maze and fight back with facts.

You’re not powerless, but you do need a plan. And sometimes, you need someone in your corner who understands how the game is played.”

From Policyholder to Power Player

As a second-generation leader in the insurance adjusting industry, Goldwich combines legacy insight with modern strategy. His engaging delivery was filled with relatable examples, client success stories, and practical tips on navigating adversity—whether through mentorship, process improvement, or simply asking the right questions.

“You’re not powerless,” he told the crowd. “But you do need a plan. And sometimes, you need someone in your corner who understands how the game is played.”
