The mesotherapy market is anticipated to grow at a CAGR of 7.72% from US$696.762 million in 2025 to US$1,010.339 million by 2030.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, April 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- According to a new study published by Knowledge Sourcing Intelligence, the mesotherapy market is projected to grow at a CAGR of 7.72% between 2025 and 2030 to reach US$1,010.339 million by 2030.

The global mesotherapy market is experiencing significant growth as more and more people turn to non-invasive cosmetic procedures for their beauty needs.

Mesotherapy is a minimally invasive procedure that involves injecting a combination of vitamins, minerals, and other nutrients into the skin to improve its appearance. It is commonly used for skin rejuvenation, hair loss treatment, and fat reduction. The procedure has gained popularity in recent years due to its effectiveness and minimal downtime compared to traditional surgical methods.

The rise in demand for mesotherapy can be attributed to the increasing awareness about the harmful effects of invasive procedures, as well as the growing trend of natural and organic beauty products. Consumers are now more conscious about the ingredients used in their beauty treatments and are opting for safer and more natural alternatives.

The market is also being driven by the availability of advanced mesotherapy devices and techniques. With the introduction of new technologies, such as needle-free mesotherapy and meso-rollers, the procedure has become more accessible and affordable for a wider range of consumers. Additionally, the growing number of trained professionals and clinics offering mesotherapy services has also contributed to the market's growth.

As the demand for non-invasive cosmetic procedures continues to rise, the mesotherapy market is expected to see even more growth in the coming years. With advancements in technology and increasing consumer awareness, the market is poised for further expansion. This presents a significant opportunity for companies operating in the mesotherapy market to capitalize on this growing trend and provide safe and effective solutions for consumers.
