marketing consulting firm in South San Diego, is proud to announce the launch of its Future Humanitarians Scholarship—a $1,000 award designed to support local students who are passionate about building a kinder, more just world. Applications are now open and will be accepted through August 15, 2025.

About the Scholarship

The Future Humanitarians Scholarship is rooted in the belief that empathy and kindness are the cornerstones of a strong, compassionate community. The scholarship aims to champion the next generation of leaders—students who are deeply committed to social justice, immigration advocacy, and humanitarian work. These are the changemakers who see beyond the surface, who understand that the world's most pressing challenges are interconnected, and who are ready to take action.

The $1,000 scholarship is open to San Diego-based high school, undergraduate, and graduate students. Ideal candidates will have a demonstrated history of community service and a clear vision for how they will continue to create meaningful change.

“As a local digital marketing consultant rooted in service, we know the power of showing up,” said Pablo Villalpando, founder of Sandy Eggo SEO. “This scholarship is our way of showing up for students who are doing just that—showing up for their communities, for justice, and for a better future.”

Applicants must submit a personal essay detailing how they have positively impacted their community and how they intend to further their humanitarian efforts. The scholarship recipient will be selected based on the strength of their essay and demonstrated commitment to service.
