convenience, and compassionate service. With more than 1,300 five-star Google reviews, the practice continues to earn the trust of patients seeking relief and recovery after traumatic accidents.

"We are thrilled to expand our services in Las Vegas and continue to provide top-notch care to our community," said Dr. Michael Reiss, owner of Southern Nevada Chiropractic. "Our new clinic will allow us to reach more patients and offer them the support they need to recover from their injuries and manage their pain effectively. We are proud that we have over 1,300 five-star Google reviews, representing satisfied customers."

The latest clinic joins an established network of locations strategically placed across the Las Vegas metro area, including North Las Vegas, Summerlin, Green Valley, Central Vegas, and Southwest Vegas. This expansion brings even greater accessibility to residents seeking prompt, expert care following an accident. The company's "Feel Better Faster" approach ensures that patients can receive timely evaluations and personalized treatment plans without delay.

Southern Nevada Chiropractic's exclusive focus on car accident injuries sets it apart from general chiropractic providers. By tailoring services to the unique challenges of post-collision care, their team can deliver specialized therapies that address both acute pain and long-term recovery needs. Services at the new clinic will include targeted treatments for whiplash, spinal misalignments, muscular injuries, and other common accident-related conditions.

The practice also offers valuable educational resources for patients navigating the complexities of recovery after an accident. Their free guidebook, available on their website, provides essential insights into injury treatment options and the importance of timely care. Patients can also learn more about Southern Nevada Chiropractic's growing network of clinics and read success stories from satisfied clients.
