

Mumbai to host the most anticipated Fuels of the Future conference 2025 on 11th June 2025

Rex Conferences is thrilled to announce the Fuels of the Future Conference 2025, to be held on June 11, 2025, at the renowned Leela Hotel in Mumbai.

MUMBAI, MAHARASHTRA, INDIA, April 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- India Sets Stage for Fuels of the Future Conference 2025

An Unmissable Convergence of Innovation, Collaboration, and Clean Energy Leadership

As India propels toward a sustainable tomorrow, Green World Trust and Rex Conferences are thrilled to announce the Fuels of the Future Conference 2025, to be held on June 11, 2025, at the renowned Leela Hotel in Mumbai.

The graphic is a promotional poster for the 'Fuels of the Future Conference 2025'. At the top, it features three logos: 'Rex Conferences' (a red hexagon with a white 'R'), 'Green World Trust' (a green circular logo with a leaf), and 'FUELS OF THE FUTURE' (a blue and orange flame logo). The main text in the center reads 'REX FUELS PRESENTS' in orange, followed by 'FUELS OF THE FUTURE' in large blue letters, and 'EXPO CONFERENCE 2025' in blue. Below this is the tagline 'Unlocking Business Opportunities | Navigating Energy Transition' in orange. The date '11th June, 2025' and venue 'The Leela Mumbai' are listed in orange. Contact information 'info@fuelsofthefuture.com' and 'www.fuelsofthefuture.com' is provided in blue. The bottom section contains a collage of six images: a green recycling symbol, a solar panel field, a green hydrogen tank labeled 'H2', a white LNG tank labeled 'LNG', a green electric car, and a green hydrogen fuel cell vehicle. The text 'Fuels of the future 2025' is at the bottom.

This transformative, one-day event will bring together over 300 luminaries from across the energy spectrum — government officials, industry frontrunners, pioneering innovators, investors, and more. Together, they will explore the breakthrough technologies and bold ideas shaping the clean energy revolution in India.

A Bold Step Toward India's Sustainable Future

India stands at a defining crossroads in its energy journey. The Fuels of the Future Conference 2025 presents a unique platform to redefine perspectives, forge impactful collaborations, and accelerate progress toward climate ambitions. The agenda spans pioneering developments in green hydrogen, biogas, SAF (Sustainable Aviation Fuel), and carbon markets, alongside solar energy, EV adoption, and funding frameworks.
