

Bryan Murray Joins Poms & Associates to Expand Sacramento Market Presence

With a background in both technology and insurance, Bryan Murray brings a unique perspective to commercial risk management.

CALABASAS, CA, UNITED STATES, April 16, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Poms & Associates is proud to welcome Bryan Murray to our team as a new producer based in Sacramento. With a background in both technology and insurance, Bryan brings a unique perspective to commercial risk management and a deep commitment to building long-term client relationships.

Bryan Murray

Born and raised in Sacramento, Mr. Murray understands the local business landscape and the challenges property owners and investors face. Over the past several years, he has developed a strong focus in multifamily, office, and industrial properties—alongside a growing specialization in the technology sector. His transition from tech to insurance was driven by a desire to find work that’s not only professionally fulfilling but also better aligned with his personal values.

I was drawn to Poms & Associates because of the firm’s reputation for service and long-term thinking. This team puts clients first and backs it up with deep expertise and meaningful resources.”

Bryan Murray

“At this stage in my career, I was looking for a firm that values client service at the highest level and invests in long-term relationships,” he shared. “Poms stood out for its deep bench of expertise, collaborative culture, and resources like risk modeling that allow us to solve complex challenges for clients.”

Mr. Murray will focus on expanding our footprint in Northern California, with a particular emphasis on real estate portfolios and client-first advisory. His passion for teamwork and interest in integrated solutions across property & casualty and employee benefits makes him a strong addition to the firm.

Outside of work, Mr. Murray is grounded by his family—including his two young children—and draws inspiration from reading and community involvement. His guiding philosophy is shaped by a commitment to being present, adaptable, and values-driven—principles that align closely with our approach at Poms.
