

All Custom Exteriors Encourages Early Booking Ahead of Peak Summer Renovation Rush

SHOW LOW, AZ, UNITED STATES, April 16, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As temperatures rise and homeowners prepare for summer projects, All Custom Exteriors is urging customers to plan ahead for exterior renovations. The summer season is typically the busiest time of year for roofing, siding, and window installations. Booking early, the company says, is key to securing preferred timelines and avoiding delays.

We recommend getting in touch early to ensure your job is completed on time—and before monsoon season sets in.”

With a reputation built on honest communication, skilled labor, and long-lasting results, All Custom Exteriors offers professional installation of roofing, siding, and other exterior upgrades across Show Low and surrounding areas.

“Summer is when most people are ready to move forward with projects, but by then our schedule can fill up quickly,” said Dylan Kay. “We recommend getting in touch early to ensure your job is completed on time—and before monsoon season sets in.”

FASTER ESTIMATES THROUGH NEW TECHNOLOGY

In an effort to make the process easier and more efficient, All Custom Exteriors has partnered with Hover, a tech platform that transforms smartphone photos into interactive 3D models and precise exterior measurements. This tool enables the company to generate fast, accurate quotes while allowing customers to visualize different materials and color combinations on their own homes.

“Using Hover helps speed up the quoting process without cutting corners,” Dylan Kay added. “It saves us time on-site and helps homeowners explore their options before making a final decision.”

Hover supports a wide range of exterior features, including roofing, siding, windows, and trim. It also reduces the need for in-person measuring during the early stages of planning, which can help move projects along more quickly.

LOCAL EXPERTISE WITH EVERY DETAIL COVERED

As a local roofing company, All Custom Exteriors installs high-quality asphalt and architectural shingles, along with complete roofing systems that include underlayment, drip edge, flashing, and ventilation. They also handle siding, fascia, soffit, and gutter installations—ensuring every aspect of the exterior is covered.

The team is known for showing up on time, sticking to project timelines, and keeping homeowners in the loop from quote to cleanup. Whether it's a small roof repair or a full replacement, customers can expect straightforward pricing, clear communication, and reliable workmanship.
