

JDM Plates Earns FCA Approval, Sponsors Ma7da Racing Series, and Expands Product Range to Meet Growing Demand

UNITED KINGDOM, April 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- JDM Plates is pleased to announce its approval by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA), enabling the company to offer finance options on private plate registrations throughout the United Kingdom. This milestone comes at a time of rapid growth for the business and underscores its commitment to making personalised number plates more accessible for customers who are seeking flexible payment solutions. Building on its growing reputation, including recent media attention from the BBC, JDM Plates has also strengthened its presence in the automotive community by sponsoring events such as the 750mc.co.uk Ma7da Racing Series, which now bears the company's name in recognition of its support.

Offering a comprehensive selection of products, JDM Plates has expanded its range to include pressed metal number plates, bespoke 3D and 4D designs, and customised variations that cater to nearly every type of vehicle. Leveraging state-of-the-art laser cutting technology and BNMA-registered materials, the company ensures that each plate meets The Road Vehicles (Display of Registration Marks) Regulations 2001, as well as all relevant amendments. Clients benefit not only from the precision and durability of these plates but also from the comprehensive "Declaration of Legality" provided with each order, demonstrating full compliance with UK regulations.

"We are delighted to receive FCA approval, as this will allow us to help more drivers obtain the private registration plates they truly want," says Carl Hanley, Director of JDM Plates. "By offering finance options, we can continue supporting motoring enthusiasts who value both aesthetic appeal and legal compliance, while also contributing to the thrill of UK racing through our Ma7da Series sponsorship."

With a focus on delivering an exceptional customer experience, JDM Plates maintains its status as a DVLA-registered supplier. Thousands of positive reviews attest to the reliability of the company's service, which also includes a user-friendly, interactive number plate builder for simple online ordering. In addition to supporting the imported car community with smaller, fully legal plates, JDM Plates can create shapes and sizes for motorcycles, hexagonal designs, and other unique options upon request. Every stage of manufacturing is guided by a team with extensive experience in graphic design, sign making, and printing, ensuring an uncompromising standard of quality and craftsmanship.

All plates are made to order at the company's manufacturing facility in Norwich and are typically delivered within three days. JDM Plates advises customers to verify that they have chosen the correct variation for their specific vehicle. If there is any uncertainty, a dedicated team member can assist with the legal requirements to ensure drivers receive the appropriate product.
