Get ready, Southern California — one of the most talked-about sports and culture events of the year is coming to Long Beach. NBA Hall of Famer, five-time NBA champion, and global style icon Dennis Rodman will make a rare appearance for an exclusive public autograph signing on Saturday, April 26, 2025.

Organized by The OC Dugout, this celebrity meet-and-greet will be held at the state-of-the-art d'Arnaud Athletics Baseballism Academy, owned by MLB veterans Chase and Travis d'Arnaud, and supported by premier sponsor Cal Dental USA.

This one-day-only event combines the worlds of sports, culture, and community—and is expected to draw fans from all over the West Coast. Whether you grew up watching Rodman dominate the boards with the Bulls or discovered him in The Last Dance, this is your chance to meet one of basketball's most legendary and polarizing figures up close and personal.

“There's no one like Rodman,” said Brian, CEO of The OC Dugout. “He's a cultural force, not just a basketball legend — and bringing him to Long Beach is about more than just an autograph. It's about creating a once-in-a-lifetime, Instagram-worthy experience for fans of all ages.”

□□ Tickets are available now at theOCdugout.com, with absentee/mail-in options available for out-of-town fans. But act fast — spots are limited and expected to sell out quickly.
