

Country Artist Jillian Cardarelli Releases Official Music Video for 'The Boys'

New Single Pays Heartfelt Homage to the Legendary Artists who Shaped the Genre

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, April 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Country artist and songwriter Jillian Cardarelli has released the Official Video for her new single, "The Boys," available now on all streaming platforms. The song was written by Jessica Cayne, Kyle Kelso and Tina Parol and produced by Daniel Dennis.

The tune immediately captured Cardarelli's attention, drawing on her love for all things classic country and iconic sound. Blending rich, traditional country influences with a contemporary sound, "The Boys" is a heartfelt homage to the legendary artists who have shaped the genre.

Cardarelli's signature vocals and emotive delivery brings the song to life, making it a must-listen for both longtime country fans and new audiences alike.

"At my core, I'm kind of a homebody. My idea of a perfect evening at home is a glass of wine paired with some of my favorite country artists like Willie, Waylon and Hank (i.e., The Boys). When one of my best friends and collaborators, Tina Parol, played this song for me, I knew I had to record it," said Jillian Cardarelli.

2025 is shaping up to be another exciting year of musical and television projects for Cardarelli. Her single "Waiting on the Sunrise" aired on the popular Fox TV series Farmer Wants a Wife, while the popular Netflix series Love is Blind featured her song "Same Moon" on a recent episode (S7/E3). Cardarelli made her hosting debut and performed for the Tunnel to Towers Never Forget TV Concert Special featuring Jelly Roll in 2024. In addition, her single "If I Could Talk
