

Jack, Muffin & Basingstoke Bear – 'Getting to Know Joe' Featured at Los Angeles Times Festival of Books

LA, CA, UNITED STATES, April 17, 2025
/EINPresswire.com/ -- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A heartwarming children's story will be showcased at the Los Angeles Times Festival of Books, held at the University of Southern California on April 26-27, 2025. "Jack, Muffin & Basingstoke Bear – 'Getting to Know Joe'" will be available for attendees to discover.

This book tells the story of Jack's first day of school, where he meets a new friend named Joe. Joe has a special story, and while it might have some challenging moments, the book is ultimately full of kindness and hope. Just like when the sun comes out after rain, this story shows how friendship can help us feel better.

"Getting to Know Joe" helps kids learn about being kind and understanding. It demonstrates how it's okay to have different feelings, and how talking about them can help. It's a wonderful book for children starting school, those who experience sadness, or anyone who enjoys a heartwarming story about friendship.

"Getting to Know Joe" is a story that emphasizes how friends can support us through difficult times. It teaches children that everyone experiences a range of emotions, and that's perfectly normal. The book is filled with joyful moments and illustrates how friendship can bring happiness.

Discover "Jack, Muffin & Basingstoke Bear – 'Getting to Know Joe'" at the Los Angeles Times

Festival of Books on April 26-27, 2025, at the USC campus.

Find your spark at the L.A. Times Festival of Books. This is a great chance to explore a book that brings kindness and hope to young readers.
