comedic voice," says

Steve Leff, Hollywood writer of seminal sitcoms Two and a Half Men and Curb Your Enthusiasm.

"Szabo's Awkwardly Yours is a fresh, hilarious, original

Szabo plays an exaggerated version of himself, as he has done in many of his previous films, including Sea Monkeys, which won The Grand Festival Award for Comedy at The Berkeley Film Festival.

Szabo finds himself in different comedic situations like going on an all red meat diet to clean himself from accidentally eating a piece of kale, forming a company to create gift candles made from your own ear wax, smoking cigars profusely to get off his addiction to the nicotine patch, developing a way to manufacture planes from blackbox material because he figures the black box always survives the crash, throwing a party when a suspicious back mole is found to only be a third nipple and being caught trying to save money by replacing high end tuna with ground hotdogs in his homemade sushi at a potluck dinner.

The trailer features, John Szabo playing an exaggerated version of himself, Jill Eras, as Chloe his wife, Rob Banks as his best friend, Joanne Majoue as his sister and Jacob Majoue as his nephew. Jack Webber, DP and Lauren Westcott, assistant DP.

The trailer was shot with a limited crew, but the pilot episode, also standalone film, will be produced at a quality equal to his previous films likely with Tribeca Studios, the details of which to be released in an upcoming major announcement.
