

Global Immigration Partners Unveils 2025 EB-5 Green Card Requirements Amid U.S. Immigration Policy Shifts

Changes to EB5 in 2025 come at a pivotal time, as the U.S. government considers significant alterations to its investment-based immigration pathways.

WASHINGTON DC, DC, UNITED STATES, April 20, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Global Immigration Partners, a leading international immigration law firm, announces the latest updates to the EB-5 Immigrant Investor Program for 2025. These changes come at a pivotal time, as the U.S. government considers significant alterations to its investment-based immigration pathways.

Key EB-5 Program Requirements for 2025:

Application Process:

Submission of Form I-526 or I-526E to initiate the petition.

Upon approval, applicants can proceed with Form I-485 for adjustment of status if residing in the U.S., or DS-260 for consular processing abroad.

Emerging 'Gold Card' Proposal:

In a recent development, President Donald Trump introduced the "Gold Card" initiative—a proposed alternative to the EB-5 program. This plan suggests offering U.S. residency and a pathway to citizenship for a $5 million investment, eliminating the traditional job creation requirement. While the proposal aims to attract high-net-worth individuals, it has sparked debates regarding its implications and legality .
