Speaking to a select audience of visionary investors, entrepreneurs, and global business leaders,

The UAE and Israel serve as a model for how economic collaboration can pave the way for sustainable and inclusive growth in the region and beyond.”

H.E. Zaslansky

H.E. Zaslansky reflected on the dynamic evolution of UAE-Israel relations since the signing of the Abraham Accords. She emphasized that diplomacy today is not confined to politics alone—it is deeply rooted in economic interdependence, innovation, and the shared pursuit of prosperity.

"Every investment made across borders becomes a vote of confidence in peace, progress, and partnership," she stated. "The UAE and Israel serve as a model for how economic collaboration can pave the way for sustainable and inclusive growth in the region and beyond."

Her speech resonated deeply with the Investors Roundtable's theme—"Connecting Capital with Purpose"—as she encouraged participants to see themselves not only as investors but as modern diplomats of progress. She highlighted the critical role of private enterprise in forging lasting ties that transcend cultural and geographic boundaries.

The event, hosted by The Dealmakers, brought together decision-makers from over 20 countries, further reinforcing Dubai's status as a nexus of global innovation and strategic alliances. It also demonstrated the powerful synergy between business and diplomacy—a core mission of The Dealmakers as it continues to foster global economic diplomacy through its high-level gatherings.

As The Dealmakers continues its global journey—with upcoming gathering, the Investors Roundtable in Malta on the 8th of July, 2025 in Valletta-Malta —the message from H.E.
