BOSTON, MA, UNITED STATES, April 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nantucket Crisps today

Whale Jam is our love letter to the island we call home and to the ocean that shaped its story. It's about more than a concert — it's a movement.”

Hayden Arnot, Founder of Nantucket Crisps announced the third annual Whale Jam benefit concert, a powerful night of live music, community, and conservation, taking place June 3, 2025, at MGM Music Hall at Fenway in Boston. The event will be preceded by a special pre-show party on June 2, featuring a live performance by Switchfoot.

Headlined by nationally acclaimed band O.A.R., with performances by The Dip and The Brook & The Bluff, and hosted by actor Jason Biggs, the event will raise critical funds and awareness for the endangered North Atlantic Right Whale, a species with fewer than 370 remaining worldwide.

Founded with a deep-rooted mission to give back to Nantucket's marine legacy, Nantucket Crisps partners closely with Whale and Dolphin Conservation (WDC) to fight for the survival of this iconic species. A portion of proceeds from the event, alongside in-room fundraising, will directly benefit WDC's conservation initiatives.

"Whale Jam is our love letter to the island we call home and to the ocean that shaped its story," said Hayden Arnot, Founder of Nantucket Crisps. "It's about more than a concert — it's a movement. Through music, community, and purpose, we're turning awareness into action. Every ticket sold, every song played, and every story told brings us closer to protecting the North Atlantic Right Whale and preserving the spirit of Nantucket for generations to come."

"The North Atlantic Right Whale is teetering on the edge of extinction — but together, we can still change its future," said Melissa Walsh-Walker, Deputy Director at Whale and Dolphin Conservation (WDC). "Partnerships like this one with Nantucket Crisps remind us that hope is powerful, and action is possible. By bringing people together through music, community, and purpose, we are giving these whales a fighting chance — and proving that every voice, every effort, truly matters."

In its first two years, Whale Jam has grown exponentially—from 700 attendees to over 2,700. This year's event targets a 5,000-person turnout, leveraging music, celebrity voices, and brand purpose to create lasting change.

Building on the success of past events, Whale Jams continues to grow in size and impact. Recap reels from previous shows are available here: Brooklyn and Boston concerts.
