

Frish Law Group and Enara Law Secure $1.2 Million Settlement for Injured Pedestrian

Enara Law and Frish Law Group secure a $1.2M settlement for a pedestrian struck while crossing the road, delivering justice and recovery.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, April 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a significant victory for pedestrian safety and accountability, Enara Law and Frish Law Group secured a $1.2 million settlement for a pedestrian who was struck by a left-turning vehicle while crossing in a marked crosswalk—ensuring the insurance company was held accountable and the injury victim was properly compensated.

The collision caused serious injuries required surgery, as well as long term medical care and rehabilitation. Together, the firms worked to present a well-documented and medically supported case that established the seriousness of their client's injuries and the lifelong impact they would have on her life.

This result highlights the importance of proactive and thorough legal representation and serves as a strong reminder of the duty all drivers have to ensure pedestrian safety. This case stands as a powerful example of how strategic legal preparation can make a difference—not only for the victim, but for community accountability and traffic safety awareness at large.
